
Letter to the Editor Guidelines for NC Newspapers

These are the letter-to-the-editor guidelines for North Carolina's major metro newspapers, quoted from the publications themselves.

Charlotte Observer

We welcome letters. Please sign (unless you are using e-mail or computer fax) and include your address and daytime telephone number. We edit for brevity, grammar, clarity and accuracy, and we reject letters published elsewhere. Letters typically address a single idea and do not exceed 150 words. We cannot return or acknowledge letters not used. Published letters will appear in paper and electronic format.

Durham Herald-Sun

From their website: The Herald-Sun welcomes letters to the editor, but asks that writers follow a few guidelines.

- Limit your letter to 250 words or fewer.
- Include a daytime phone number or email address.
- Include your full name and home address. Anonymous letters will not be published.
- Letters not published in the print edition of The Herald-Sun will not be published online.
- If you prefer not to use the form below, you can send an e-mail with all the requested information directly to letters@heraldsun.com.

Note: The website is undergoing renovation.

Winston Salem Journal

- Letters should be no more than 200 words.
- All letters are subject to editing for clarity and length.
- The Journal will publish no more than one letter a month from an individual writer.
- Open letters, letters sent to more than one address, and poetry will not be published.
- A phone number and complete mailing address must be included so we can verify that a letter is, in fact, from the stated author. Only the writer's name and city will be published.
- Our mailing address: Letters to the Journal, P.O. Box 3159, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102.
- Letters may also be submitted by e-mail to letters@wsjournal.com. If your letter is an attachment to e-mail, please save the letter in text form.
- If your letter is intended to run only in the Clemmons or Kernersville Journal, please make note of that in the copy and e-mail to news@wsjournal.com.

Greensboro News-Record

There's no introductory blurb to this online form, other than to state a 200 word limit. Letters are published online in blog, where you can comment.
